

Restitution and Repatriation: A Practical Guide for Museums in England

Date: 05 August 2022

Download Publication

We commissioned the Institute of Art and Law to develop guidance to support the museums sector in matters related to the restitution and repatriation of cultural objects. The guidance provides a practical framework for museums to consider and manage potential restitution and repatriation cases.

The guidance is underpinned by existing policy and legislative framework and supports museums in making decisions and managing cases in a legally appropriate and ethically responsible manner. It does not change any policy or legislation.
